

The Australian Women's Weekly PRODUCT OF THE YEAR 2012 WINNERS

“After an overwhelming response from readers, the votes are finally in and the time has come to announce your favourites. From the bathroom to the kitchen, you have selected the elite items that deserve the title of New Zealand's most-loved products.”

The Australian Women's Weekly (New Zealand Edition) Product of the Year Awards 2012 has highlighted the stand-out brands and items in the categories of Favourite Beverage, Favourite Baking Product, Favourite Natural Health Product, Favourite Convenience Product, Favourite Kitchen Appliance, Favourite Prestige Beauty, Beauty Hall of Fame, Favourite Budget Beauty, Favourite Women's Health Product and Favourite Cleaning Product.

Once an expert panel had whittled down the entries to the final products in each of the categories, you – our readers – voted on which of these deserved to be named The Australian Women's Weekly Product of the Year winners. The response we received was overwhelming and each vote cast helped to decide which products offered the ultimate combination of value, quality and performance.

Now it's our pleasure to introduce the items that you have selected as the 10 category winners of The Australian Women's Weekly Product of the Year Awards 2012.
